Charming Recital.

The piano recital given by the Marcato Music Club Saturday afternoon n the assembly room of the Waldo with the program in charge of Mrs. Harry T. Wilson at which time Mr. Frederic Curtis Butterfield, planist, appeared, was one of the most charming musical feasts given this year.

The entire program was perfect in its rendition, shown by the clear technique, exquisite touch and brilliant execution of Mr. Butterfield. The selections which deserve special mention were MacDowell's "Polonaise" and Reflets Dans l'ean by Debussy, which were received with great ap-preciation and applause by the large audience which greeted this talented Prospect during the Christmas Holiday Season in London is Increasing Daily.

LONDON, Dec. 8—The prospect of a strike of 100,000 of the British postoffice employees during the Christmas serson increases daily. A national committee of the employees matons, committee or the employees unions will meet this week to decide the question. General sentiment among the men appears to be in giving Herbert Samuel, the postmarter general, an ultimatum immediately, demanding a fifteen per cent increase of salary for all employees.
